With JIMMY LENNON

"JIM NOTES":

"ENJOY YOURSELF — IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK."—So goes an old Chinese proverb. Take heed of this, and you'll last longer—then It'll be earlier than you think.

PAN SENDS GREETINGS: To PAT McKEE, former wrestling referee, motion picture actor — boxer, etc. — who is now a patient of the Forrestal Sanatarium in Pacoima, Calif. Pat is having a tough time of it, especially after leading such a rugged life. "Here's to your health—may it improve rapidly." (Why not drop "our" Pat a line—Nuf Sed.)

CHARLES HEATH—Ace sports photographer, and all around swell guy, who has just learned how to lengthen his life, and have fun at the same time—He's just moved onto his own farm, and Deer-Hunting grounds up in Hope, Idaho. Charlie just fell out of an apple tree, and broke a foot. He's receiving mail too—Nuf Sed!

MARCEL CERDAN figures to defend his title against "THE ROCK" sometime in the early part of '49. This fight would draw, and then if still champion — maybe against the overweight welter RAY ROBINSON.

A sidelight on the World Series won by the INDIANS, and HOPE: Boston Mayor James Curley bet, and lost 100 pots of Boston Baked Beans to Mayor Tom Burke, who put up a wooden Indian for security.

JOE LOUIS starts his Exhibition Tour on Nov. 8 meeting Johnny Skhor in Boston.

MAXIE DOCUSEN is still the only undefeated lightweight contender in the world. He just won his 44th straight victory by defeating game little MARIO TRIGO.

DO YOU HAVE A COPY OF THE LATEST SONG HIT???

It's all about 'GORGEOUS GEORGE".

IKE WILLIAMS may defend his title against HAROLD JONES in Seattle. This would be a cinch for the real champion — Ike. PAT COMISKEY who looked good here in LA, won in 8 rounds from Joe Cheshul of N. J.

PAN PICK BOB TAKESHITA won from TONY MAR in the Islands—10 rnd.—RUSTY PAYNE whom we always thought better than most of the Eastern Heavies—just kayoed CURTIS SHEPPARD in 9 heats in Pitt. TONY JANIRO did the same to Ruby Kessler in the first in NY.—SANDY SADDLER who is prepping for a title bout with PEP, won by kayo over WILLIE ROACH.—JIM BIVINS scored over JOHN FLYNN in Philly. —Irish JIMMY CURL, former main-eventer at OCEAN PARK, won a main go in MIAMI by kayoing Johnny Rosado.—

GEORGE PARNASSUS is importing a goodie from South of the Border. LUIS TORRES, (Lightweight) has won 80 out of 85.—Mmmmmm? ARTURO BARRON continues to win by KAYO—spelled with a capital K. He just decked BOBBY MALONEY in 3 rounds. This makes about 7 straight for the hard punching L. A. Mexican. PAN-TOUTED DICK HOLLAND, former Hollywood Hi Boxer won in his first fight since copping the novice crown in G.G. AL COX was the unlucky lightheavy. Pico Palace was the scene.

It really looks—or sounds like BILLY CONN, former light-heavy champion is serious about a comeback. He's been working out with Gus Lesnevich at a New Jersey Gym. Reports say that he will be ready in November.

FRISCO JAMES, colored belter in the heavy ranks, who has run into one bad piece of luck after another, may never lace on a glove after being badly scalded by many pounds of hot rubber in some tire plant. An amputation may be necessary to save his life. This comes after a broken foot just recently healed. Mgr. Mrs. ROMAN STARR is really heart sick as is Pan.

PAN certainly likes the up and coming 'LITTLE AL" ARENAS whom we put you wise to many months ago. This feather looks and boxes much, much like his tutor-manager JOE BARNUM—by the way plays a lousy game of Gin Rummy.

PAN SCOREBOARD:

JOE KAHUT—and MAXIE DOCUSEN, the Pan Picks for last week came thru with flying colors, and made our scoreboard light up with 104 winning selections out of 138 "PAN PICKS"—3 draws and 31 losers. —Here goes for this week's card, a toughie.

OLYMPIC: BOLANOS the PAN PICK. Why? Because he's done just about everything asked of him except win over Ike Williams —This boy he meets is JOHNNY "HONEYBOY" WILLIAMS, no relation. Enrique is very fast, hits hard with either hand, and takes a punch well. He should be just too clever for the boy who won over FREDDIE DAWSON—drew twice with JESS FLORES, and TOM CAMPBELL—once. It may not be a kayo, but probably Bolanos winner by decision after ten hectic rounds.

OCEAN PARK:

KENNY WATKINS the PICK—Why? Probably on his ring generalship and ability to outfigure younger boxers in the ring. Kenny loses very few, and will probably outbox the very likeable hard punching BOBBY MURPHY of San Diego—but watch out if Murphy sends a "load of bricks" your way, Kenny. PAN doesn't think that Bob is quite ready for clever Kenny, but will be soon.

HOLLYWOOD:

CARLOS CHAVEZ the PICK over TORRITO RAMOS in a lightweight scrap. Because? Chavez has lost only two fights in his entire career. One to Ortiz, and one to PAULINO MONTES. Chavez is still trying to get Pep into the ring with him, and figures to out do Ramos in almost every dept. Ramos won and lost to Montes.

Watch for the big night — The "NIGHT OF MAIN EVENTS" at Hollywood, OCTOBER 30th, benefit for the OLYMPIC JEWISH TEMPLE Building Fund. 4 -ten-rounders will go with many stars participating for the "KIDS."

FIGHT RESULTS LOCALLY:

OCEAN PARK—Referee JIM WALLACE stopped the bout between WATSON JONES, and SONNY ANDREWS in the 8th round as JONES was leading by a comfortable margin over the 5th rnd. The decision was rendered as "No Decision". Andrews opened well, and pummeled Jones in the body to gain a slight lead. Only on one occasion did the fireworks pop as Jones, who was willing and eager, smashed one right to the whiskers of S. Andrews in the 3rd. In defense of the boys, it must be known that they know each other's style very well, after two previous fights, one a very close decision to Jones, and the other a close one to Andy.

HOLLYWOOD: JOE KAHUT bobbed and weaved thru 6 rounds before finding the target in the 7th. "Target" JERRY MacSWAIN took one on the chin, and used the ropes for support—necessitating a count by the ref—Gilmore. One more right and it was all over by TKO in 2:01 of the 7th. Jerry was well out in front until the Curtain dropped.

OLYMPIC: Still undefeated—MAXIE DOCUSEN did it again. Punch after punch landed on the nose of game MARIO TRIGO before DR. MACE, ring physician, halted festivities which were dominated by the clever-punching little New Orleans battler. Trigo had a broken nose, but went out of the ring still eager to fight. The end came in the 7th round. Up until then it was a free-punching duel with each giving and taking.

REVIEWING THE PRELIMS:

AL ARENAS handed Geo. Mendoza a Kayo in less than 2 min. of the second round at OP. Arenas opened up in a very cute style, accompanied by furious punches from every angle. Geo. weathered the round and shot some beauties of his own. In the 2nd Arenas found the range, and lowered the boom, and Mendoza hung helplessly on the ropes—unable to defend himself—a future main-boy-Arenas!

ROOSEVELT BONNER continues to win—his latest a kayo over Torrito ORTEGA in Hollywood.—J. J. CRACKNELL duked FLASH GORDON on the same card as MANNIE MADRID won over JESS SALAZAR and DUKE CHRONISTER tkoed LARRY DURAN. RUDY VASQUEZ nipped Joe ROBLETO'S comeback in the bud by winning a 6 round semi by unanimous dec. Both fighters were down for eight counts in the third round.

At OCEAN PARK BABY IKE stole the show as he stopped Cagey NORRIS in 2 frames after dropping him for eight in the 1st. Baby Ike, just 18, figures to ride high in a few months. He is ably handled by Genial GEORGE LATKA—CARL ARAKAKI, a recent importation from Honolulu, caught on with the fans as he scored over the brother of Lauro Salas—Santo Salas, in 4 rnds.

ADDED NOTES:

NAP HOWARD, managed by Ben Marcus, has won his last several fights and wants a main or two among the "toppers"—PAT VALENTINO is a real threat to the so-called top-notchers in the East. Pat is winning consistently against good competition. Watch for a corker when Pauling MONTES meets LUIS TORRES at Hollywood on Oct. 22.

Harry Rubin tells Pan that he has been in touch with Joe Louis and that he may be here for a few wrestling referee jobs in the near future.

If you think Gorgeous George has an easy time of it on the road, just take a gander at this line-up for the first week: Phoenix, Monday; El Paso, Tuesday; Omaha, Wednesday; Philadelphia, Thursday; and Buffalo, Friday. That's bobbing around and really keeps one on his toes.

"Mighty oaks from little acorns grow." Several weeks ago we told you about the wrestling promoters of the United States plans for holding a meeting to try and clarify the heavyweight wrestling situation. This all came about from an impromptu party at Sandor Szabo's house.

A number of promoters were there and after passing the ball around for a short time, Tony Stecher from Minneapolis made talk about a proposed meeting. his took place after Ed "Strangler" Lewis had given the promoters a going over. Tony's proposal was met with hearty approval. Since reporting this little episodes, plans have been made to consummate a meeting.

From reliable sources it is reported this meeting is to take place in Chicago on the 30th of this month. Practically every promoter in the country and parts of Canada will be represented. That is if everyone that was invited appears. Tony Stecher pointed out that it might take several of these get-togethers before anything of note could be done. But we want to add it is a move in the ght direction.

To give you an idea of the people or promoters that are invited: Johnny Doyle, Cal Eaton and possibly several other local promoters from this section will go back. Joe Malcewics from up 'Frisco way has already made plans for attending. Morris Siegal from down in Houston, with his able assistant, Carl Sarpolis, will also make the trek.

Al Haft of Columbus, Ohio, and the surround area will be on hand. George Zaharias, the Denver promoter, will be there. Paul Jones down in Atlanta, Georgia, will put in an appearance. The aforementioned Tony Stecher, also Pinkey George from Des Moines, Iowa, and Max Clayton from Omaha.

The Eastern promoters will be represented by Paul Bowser of Boston, Toots Mondt from New York, also Rudy Dusek from the same city. Several more from that section will put in an appearance. Namely, Don George from Buffalo and Bill Lewis from Richmond.

Canada will send down Johnny Tunney from Toronto and Eddie Quinn from Montreal. Jack Ganson from Cleveland and Fred Kohler of the Windy City, who will be right on hand. Both of the St. Louis promoters, Sam Mushnick and Hook Nelson, are behind the move to the fullest extent.

There will be others that will put in an appearance, but you can get the idea from the list that the whole of North America will be well represented.

We cannot make the point too strong or too often that it is about the most sensible move that has ever been made in wrestling since the championship has been buffeted around after Gus Sonnenberg took over as champ in 1929.

Sports writers from all over the country can and will state that the fellow that is listed as champ is exactly that. Today no sports writer will say that any is the real ruler because he would only be insulting the intellect of his readers. There are many that share this distinction at the present time. I have enumerated them on several occasions, but in reality they are only state or section titleists.

No individual has for the last ten years had the distinction of being the undisputed title-holder. This has come about from several reasons. Local boys who have a claim never invade some other claimant's stronghold. He is kept busy and has no need to go about seeking matches with other titleholders in other sections. To the greatest extent you cannot blame them, for why go over to a field that does not look too green when the grass in your own pasture is lush and verdant.

This situation has also given rise to commissions not recognizing title claims. They just ignore the whole situation. With the setup, the various athletic commissions' hands are tied. What can they do when a man refuses to meet another. All they can do is to order the match and if one feels as though he does not want to go through with it, he just packs his bag and leaves. He can, and does, go to another section where he is permitted to show his wares.

No man can be forced to go through with a match if he does not so desire. When he is out of the state he is out from under the state commission's rulings. And he cannot be set down by a suspension in other states because there is no charge against him—inasmuch as he never contracted for the match.

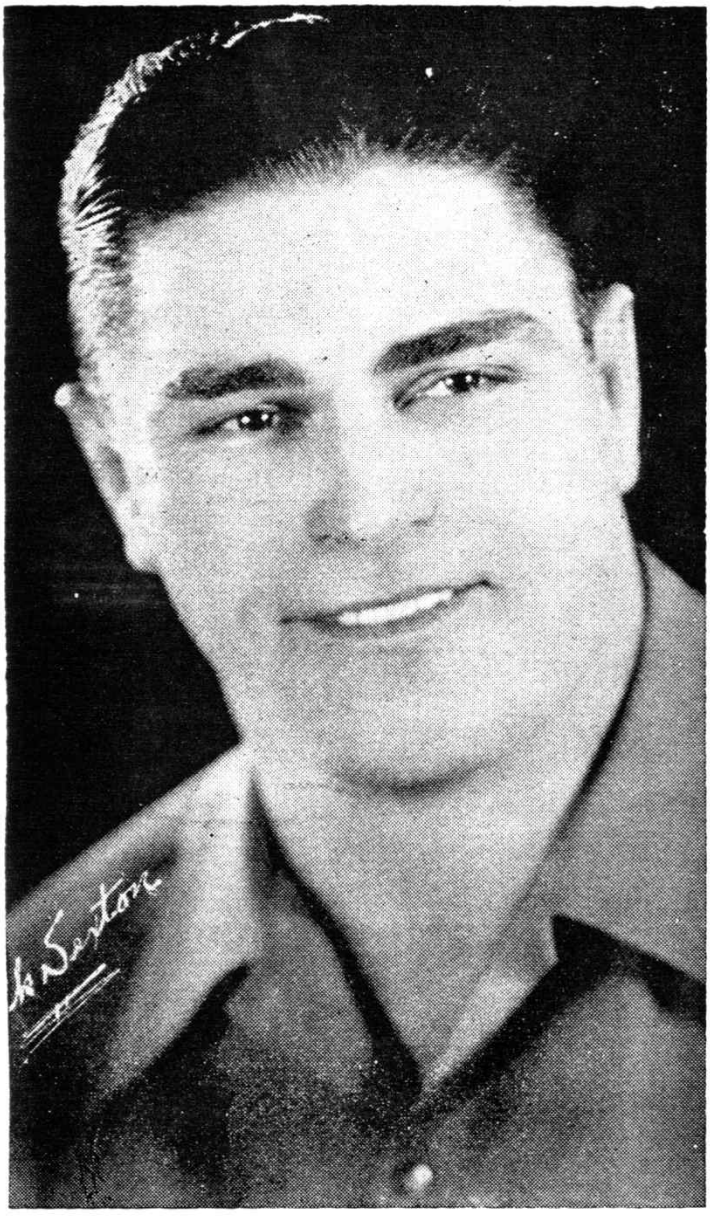
Showdown Coming



Like good wine and cheese improves with age, so it goes with wrestlers, and Frank Sexton, no exception to the rule, is looking better than ever in his latest Southern California campaign.

Hope that the Sedalia Powerhouse doesn't mind the comparison—as he's not old as years go. But as for experience and number of matches—Sexton really is well seasoned.

The man recognized throughout the East and most of the Midwest as THE world champion, has been undefeated now in heaven alone knows how many matches, and he's going stronger than ever.

Not even travelling on an average of 120,000 miles a year can slow down the great Sexton's speed, enthusiasm or bother his stamina. A man of steel is this Sexton.

Well remembered here for his terrific campaign last fall, Sexton is being greeted by record-shattering houses all through the district, and everywhere he appears he receives tremendous ovations from the crowds.

Not only does Sexton wrestle like a champion, but looks like one. Perfectly developed, handsome, beautifully muscled, graceful in every movement, the Sedalia (Ohio) product is everyone's dream of the way a wrestler should look—and act!

The most respected man in the ranks, as his repertoire includes 1,000 holds, Sexton is bound to go down in the annals of matdom as one of the greatest history has ever known.

Wristlocks, half-Nelson spinners, hammerlocks, his own Sexton scissors, headlocks, Boston crabs and the dread pile-driver are favorite and the most damaging of Sexton's varied holds. It was a pile-driver he used last year on Larry Moquin, it's recalled, that nearly wrecked the gallant young Canadian's career.

Sexton, the youngest child in a family of 12 children, worked his way through the Ohio State University, but found time for baseball and football. Wrestling was what he liked best, however, and he turned down offers to play pro football and baseball, in favor of the mat game.

"And I've never regretted it." Sexton has emphasized.

The sport has well paid off, as he is rated as one of the most affluent athletes in the country.

"But I've had to work for every penny of it." Sexton has pointed out.

Gifted with a natural pair of "scissors legs," and a set of arm and shoulder muscles as powerful as steel springs, he is rated as a second Joe Stecher.

Perhaps other notables of the past could have defeated him had they been born a bit later, but since he took the title from Steve Casey back in '45, few opponents have been able to make little headway against this great farm boy from Ohio.

Sexton is rated the most aggressive wrestler in the country and explains that "the best defense is a strong offense," which is going back to the days when he played college football.

He credits his amazing stamina and good health to his way of living as he combines physical conditioning with his career. His off-season hobbies are fishing, horseback riding and water skiing. At his summer home at Crystal Beach, Ontario, Frank pedals close to 50 miles a day on his bicycle. And they say he has chopped so much wood during his vacations that he can supply every fireplace in town with wood for the whole winter.

And what does he do for recreation?

Goes to wrestling matches.

Now if promoters will lay down the law and stick by it to the letter, they will again have sports writers on their side and there will be no dilly-dallying around. It might cost a promoter something for a few weeks, but in the end he will be well reimbursed.

So take a tip from Pan, you promoters — make up your laws and stick to them. You will find that when you have everyone's confidence you will be much farther ahead.

Do you know that Bronko is Nagurski's Christian name and not a nickname — as commonly is supposed? The Ukranian-Minnesotan explains that Bronko is his given name. He says he never could find out what it means in Ukranian.

A good way to find which way the wind is blowing these days is to watch the 'teen-agers, and you'll gain a good conception of public sentiment.

And as the 'teen-age fans right now are going all out for Lou Thesz, you rightly can judge—that's hte way the elders' sentiments are going, too.

In the case of the Hungarian Hurricane, however, the elder fans probably took the jump on the high school crowd—as you'll find as many solid citizens in lines waiting for a glimpse of this great star as you will 'teen-agers.

And if any wrestler is worthy of an autograph line, it's Thesz. For anything you can think to name in the way of wrestling, he has—plus a lot more.

No wonder the stream-lined power machine has been such a terrific idol in St. Louis, Chicago, Kansas City and all the midwest since the war!

Thesz is a wrestler you can put in the same class as the best of the old-timers like Frank Gotch, the Russian Lion; Hackenschmidt, and Farmer Jones. Experts say that those leg scissors holds used by the Hungarian couldn't have been used with any more telling power by the great Gotch, himself.

But the newcomer from St. Louis, we believe, has a lot more on the ball than any of the illustrious stars of another year—color. A perfectionist in style, Thesz doesn't allow any classic theories to interfere with his application of holds, with the result that when he's in action he looks like a Greek statue come to life.

Thesz is the man who held the NWA title three times, and from the way he's wrestling these days, he's well on his way to reclaim it. A serious mat injury, plus three years in the Army, kept him out of the running for a long time, but he's now staging a magnificent comeback, and rates the strongest threat for the crown to appear here.

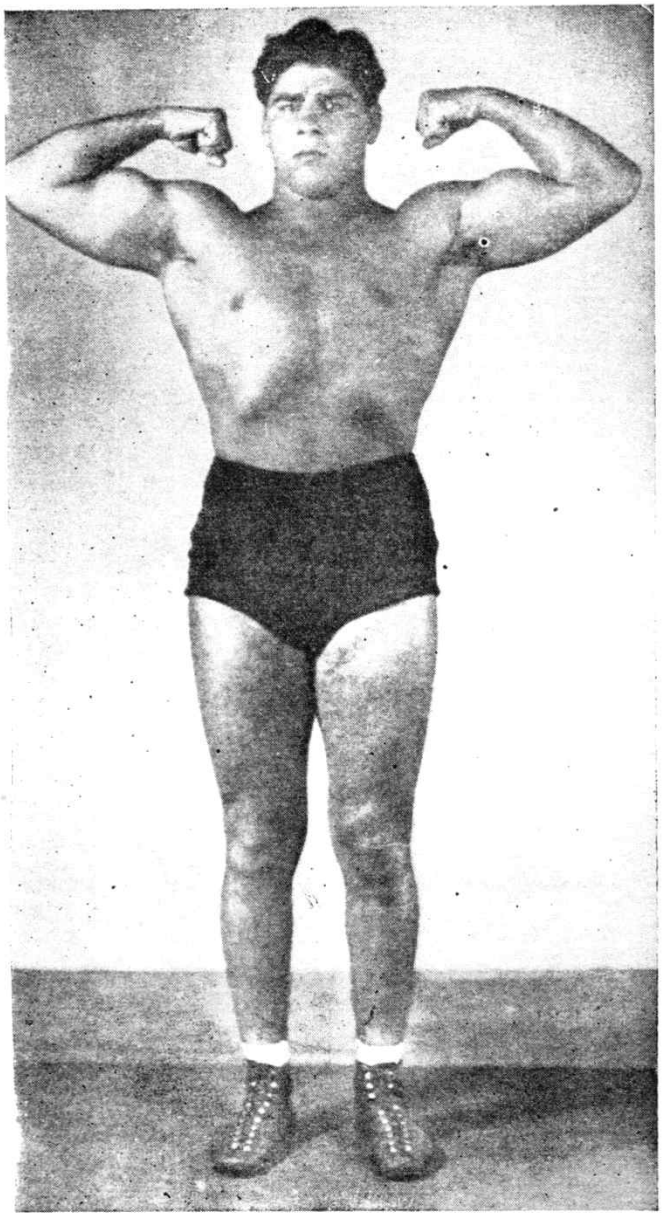
Introducing Bobby Maganoff



The old saying—"Like father, like son"—truly applies in the case of Bobby Managoff, Chicago big-timer, who is due soon to make his West Coast debut.

Managoff is the son of the great ..... Managoff, former midwest idol, and for many years one of the greatest coaches and referees in the game.

Bobby, who was a finished mat product before he was 16, is said by the experts to be even more sensational as a wrestler than his "old man."

He has defeated everybody of any consequence throughout the midwestern states and Canada, and recently made an impressive tour of the "deep south" before accepting bids to come west.

Bobby, who was applying half-Nelsons and hammerlocks at an age when most boys were playing with teddy-bears, was both precocious as an athlete and a school student, for when he was only 15 he was operating a gymnasium of his own in Chicago.

Wrestling was, of course, the major course offered in the high-schooler's training school, but Managoff also made sure that his young pupils kept physically fit with a well-balanced extra-curricular program which included calisthenics, weight lifting, running, boxing and hand-ball.

"Every block in a big city's residential area should have its own gym for 'teen-agers — and there would be no more worries for juvenile officers," Managoff contends. He still runs a training club for boys when he's home for a while in Chicago.

Bobby's main reason for coming west at this time, it is rumored, is to track down Hans Schnabel in his "own lair" and challenge him to really have it out with him in a Southern California ring. Hostilities between the Windy City star and Schnabel started last spring when the Wrecker invaded Bobby's stronghold to "get away with murder."

Aside from Schnabel, there's a dozen other boys now busy on the coast that Managoff is anxious to meet again.

"Looks like the west coast is the spot for a real showdown for the world title this winter—and if so, I'm going to be in on the festivities," Bobby has declared.

Good looking, muscled like a Hercules, fiery-dispositioned, but cagey and scientific, the Chicago star will be a welcome addition to the local clubs—from the spectators' standpoint.

From the wrestlers' view, through, they're all wishing Bob by had decided to go to Canada or Texas.

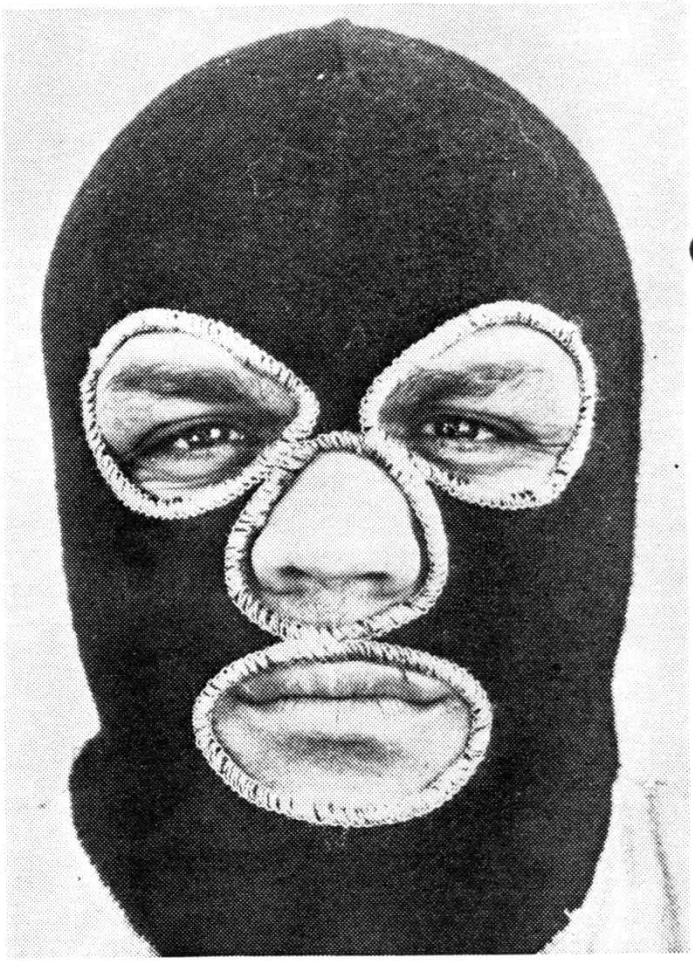
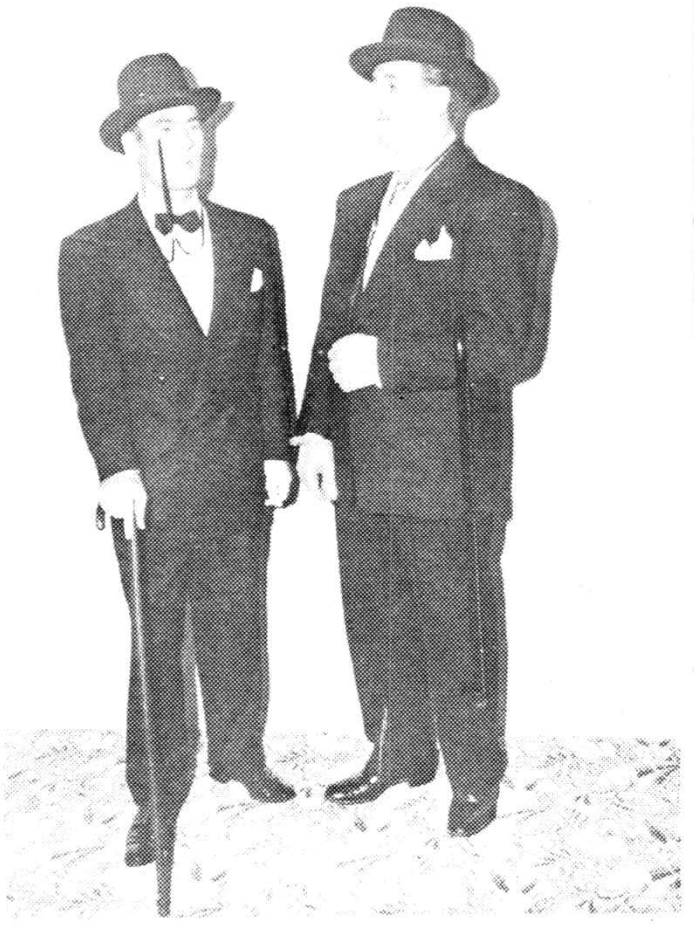
This is to people that write in to find out the life story of about a half dozen wrestlers. We do not have these things on file and it would be a lot of work for us to set down and write to all of these people about all of these wrestlers. Give us time in Pan and we will cover them all.



GOLDEN TERROR

Captain Holms a Raconteur



Captain Leslie Holms, Lord Blears' companion and manager, is one of the most interesting persons we have talked to in a long time. He knows England like a book and understands their lack of humor. It is a one-man show when he imitates one of the generals in the last world war.

Not only does he imitate and can see the humor in the staid dry English method of expressing themselves. He also knows much about their predicament. That is the scarcity of all consumer goods and everything that makes a normal existence possible. The English people themselves do not realize what they are going through. They got so accustomed to all the rationing during the war they do not mind it too much.

They act as though they never had anything but a meager existance. Children from eleven and downward have never known anything but this.

Captain Holmes also relates that the younger people are trying to get away. All are scattering over the face of the earth. That is those with any foresight or ambition. The future looks pretty dark for our English cousins.

A little anicdote about this rationing was supplied by the good captain himself; when his wife arrived in this country he took her out to one of the large markets that are so prevalent. There she stood with her mouth open as though she could not believe her eyes. The first thing she wanted to know was could she buy it. When assured that it was all for sale, in she went and started to browse. When I say browse I am making the world's greatest understatement. She literally carressed each and every can of beans and spinach. In fact she stayed in the market fingering the different food stuff so long that she was under suspicion of shop lifting. If they hadn't closed she might have been there yet.

The Captain then told one about himself when he first got here. Riding along the road the car he was in ran over a small piece of timber. He wanted to stop and get it. When asked why he said, "I could make a bloody good fire out of that when winter comes." He was then told that there were thousands of tons laying around. He worried all day how he could get it all to England.

Do not be surprised to find that some time in the future he gets a role in the movies. He has a very pleasing voice and a trick but interesting method of delivery.

Dempsey to Referee

Just received the hottest fight news this paper has had the pleasure to publish.

Jack Dempsey has just announced that on Saturday, October 30th, Dempsey will present the "NIGHT OF MAIN EVENTS" featuring four 10-round bouts—each bout in itself an outstanding main event.

Mario Trigo vs. Nick Diaz
Don Lee vs. Harry "Kid" Mathews
Charley Salas vs. Richard Jones
Jonny Duke vs. J. T. Ross

Never in the history of Los Angeles boxing has there ever been a card presented of such outstanding four main events. It is my guess that the Hollywood Legion Stadium will turn away at least 10,000 people on this particular night.

This paper wants to go on record as congratulating Dempsey in once again bringing the fighting spirit back to where it belongs—here in Los Angeles.

And to top this card with an additional knockout blow, Jack Dempsey is going to referee one of the main events himself, and in all probability, arrangements are now being made to have Joe Louis referee another one of the main bouts.

Something tells me that the Hollywood Legion Stadium is going to have the greatest line up for tickets they have seen in a long time.

This paper received the information pertaining to these main event bouts, and we immediately called the Hollywood Legion Stadium for further information pertaining to the sale of tickets. We were informed that tickets are now available for sale at the Hollywood Legion Stadium.

We recommend that you fight fans lose no time in getting these tickets if you want to see this, the greatest of all fights. This paper not only endorses the "NIGHT OF MAIN EVENTS' which Dempsey so beautifully arranged, but we take our hats off to the greatest fighter of all times in being able to arrange these four outstanding events which will take place at the Hollywood Legion Stadium on October 30th.

Out to prove to the public that he primarily is a wrestler and NOT merely a movie star, Iron Mike Mazurki is drawing big houses in the Northwest and Canada. Recently was engaged in a series of lively brawls with Al Mills (Mr. Murder) in Calgary.

Primo Carnera went to South America to fill a few wrestling dates. It was reported that he had some passport trouble. It has not been verified through any official channels. The trouble was supposed to be that he put "expert" instead of "wrestler" when filling out application for a visa.

Mike Hirsch has been back attending the world series.
